

We're always looking for talented interns to join the Marketing Matters team!

At Marketing Matters, your internship will give you real-life experiences working on client projects or internal agency work starting on your first day! We'll give you a taste of every part of working at an agency with a focus on your course studies. Internships are not paid and you must be able to apply credits to your degree.

Internships are offered year-round and last three to five months, depending on the season. This is not your “pick up bagels and coffee” type of internship. We believe in empowering people to make smart decisions and are dedicated to reinventing the workplace. We hire talented, capable people who are willing to jump in and try things in new, innovative ways.

Internships are available in account service, graphic design and interactive.

Requirements include:

- Currently attending a university or community college
- Must commit to at least 16 hours/week
- Excellent communication and writing skills
- Extremely organized and detail-oriented
- Ability to multi-task, meet deadlines and exceed expectations
- Be dedicated, fun, outgoing and adventurous
- Must be able to apply credits to degree
- Have some degree of knowledge for the position you are applying
